Celebrate Independence Day at FreedomFest 2007

FORT POLK, La. - With July 4th just around the corner, Fort Polk is gearing up for the largest fireworks display in the region - FreedomFest 2007 is set to take place Wednesday, July 4, at Headquarters Field, here.

FreedomFest begins at 5 p.m. with free, live musical entertainment beginning at 5:30 p.m. from Mustang Sally, singing some good-time rock 'n roll followed by Rockin' Dopsie, Jr. and the Zydeco Twisters at 7 p.m.

At dusk, the air will resonate with the sound of our National Anthem and the roar of a cannon salute in honor of each state. The night sky will light up with an awesome display of fireworks that's sure to take your breath away.

Admission is free and open to the public. Enjoy food and beverages from the many vendors. Games and plenty of inflatables will be available for the kids' entertainment. Picerne Military Housing will have a children's area, "Christmas in July" from 5-8 p.m.

Off post residents may enter the installation at any gate. Parking for the event is offered at the following locations with shuttle bus transportation departing every 15 minutes:

BJACH South Parking Lot

Soldiers Complex

Family Readiness Center

North Polk Elementary School

Library/Education Center

Perez Youth Sports Field
